

On Tuesday, October 25, 2016, the Inspector General of the Army, Lieutenant General, Mr. Ioannis Iliopoulos, visited the National Defence Fund (NDF) Headquarters.

During his visit, he was informed by the Director of NDF, Major General Georgios Stathias, regarding the Vision, Mission and overall Strategy that has been developed by the NDF over the last 5 years as a competent institution in the field of General Staff and consequently the Ministry of National Defence, on management – rational use issues of immovable property, relying on the principle of contributory benefits favour to the NDF.

The visit ended with the corresponding directions, admonitions and greetings sent by Mr. Inspector to personnel (military and civilian) of the NDF.

{gallery}galleries/20161029_geps_pics{/gallery}