

On Monday, the 17th of March 2014, in order to inform the staff of the Hellenic Army about the task and objectives of the National Defence Fund (NDF), a visit – briefing was held by the General Manager of the Fund Major General Mr. Georgios Stathias, accompanied by qualified Staff Officer, at Engineer Officers Technical School.

In these lectures the strategy and the overall reforming program of the NDF was presented, which aimed to the optimal utilization of the available real estate, based on the well-established principle of contributory benefits for NDF.

{gallery}galleries/steamx{/gallery}