

It is announced that the National Defence Fund will conduct an open competition that will concern the project "Design, Development and Implementation of web applications for visualization - mapping - registration of property - land ownership of NDF using Google Maps / Google Earth with the appropriate configuration and interaction with the NDF website".

For more information click here.